Beyond Borders Jamaica Students, FSU Students Engage in Cultural Exchange

Last week, 12 students from the University of the West Indies, Jamaica visited FSU's main campus as a part of the Beyond Borders program. The program provides a unique opportunity for FSU students to host incoming international students and participate in a short-term cultural exchange then travel to either Jamaica during Spring Break 2018 or Dresden, Germany for three weeks following the spring semester.

Over the course of the week, UWI students interacted with FSU students in the Beyond Borders program and the greater FSU community. One way they did this was by giving a classroom presentation in which they shared their culture through folklore, language, music, and dance. As a part of this dynamic presentation, FSU students joined UWI students as they performed various styles of Jamaican dance.

Through the program, UWI and FSU students spend time together dining, going on campus tours, attending performances, engaging in team building activities at The Rez, and more. One highlight is “shadow day,” during which each UWI student is paired with an FSU student to experience a typical day at FSU, including attending classes. Jordanna Roberts, an FSU freshmen studying exercise physiology, said she found Beyond Borders because she was looking for a study abroad program.
