Experience Jamaica or Germany Through Beyond Borders Intercultural Exchange Program

Immerse yourself in another culture, build life-long friendships, and develop intercultural communication skills through the Beyond Borders intercultural exchange program.

Students in the program first welcome international students from Jamaica or Germany to FSU's campus; take a one-credit hour course during the spring semester; and then travel to either Kingston, Jamaica, during Spring Break 2019, or Dresden, Germany, for three weeks following the spring semester. FSU students are hosted by the same international students and explore the local culture by visiting museums, historical sites and memorials, attending local festivals, sporting events, and more.

The deadline to apply for Jamaica is Friday, September 27, and the deadline for Germany is Tuesday, November 5. Visit cge.fsu.edu/beyondborders to apply. Interested students may attend an information session to learn more about the program.

FALL 2019 INFO SESSIONS***

FSU Students Impacted by Hurricane Dorian Encourage Relief Efforts

Five F-1 international students from The Bahamas encourage anyone in the FSU community who is interested in supporting Hurricane Dorian relief efforts to contribute monetary donations. Four of the students are from Nassau and one is from Grand Bahama, which was one of the two most devastated locations in The Bahamas.

Shaquania Dorsett, master's student studying public health from Grand Bahama, encourages the FSU community to make a donation through the government's official relief efforts website: www.bahamas.com/relief.

"For my island, the devastation is pretty bad. More than 70 percent of the island was under water at that time. More than 45 percent of homes were lost," Dorsett said. "I have friends whose houses are completely gone, and the death toll is still rising. Right now monetary donations are most helpful."
