Due to technical difficulties with our newsletter app, we are unable to share the CGE's full Global Connections Newsletter with you this week. However, here are three key items we wanted to share with you before the Thanksgiving Break.

Please stay safe and be well!

FSU's Global Citizenship Certificate Strengthens Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL) Partnerships

This fall the Global Citizenship Certificate (GCC) doubled the number of Florida State University students engaged in enhanced global learning by expanding its Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL) partnership from the initial partnership with The Technology College of Americana (FATEC) in Brazil to include three different campuses at FATEC: FATEC Americana, FATEC São Caetano and FATEC Praia Grande.

These expanded partnerships allow for 80 FSU undergraduate students enrolled in three sections of the Global Perspectives course to benefit from active intercultural engagement and learning with the students they are paired with from Brazil for fall versus 40 students for spring 2020. The initial spring 2020 pilot COIL project was implemented by Elçin Haskollar, Ph.D., GCC Program Director and Teaching Faculty.
