Daughters of the Forest

Film Screening and Q&A
with Dr. Ramos-Mattoussi

Thursday, November 4
7-8:30 p.m. | Askew Student Life Center (ASLC)

Presented by FSU's Center for Global Engagement's Engage Your World Speaker Series,
Learning Systems Institute, & Student Life Cinema

Attend Engage Your World on Thursday, November 4, at 7 p.m.

Join us on Thursday, November 4, at 7 p.m. at the Askew Student Life Center (ASLC) for a film screening of Daughters of the Forest, an uplifting coming-of-age story set in the untamed wilds of the Mbaracayu Reserve in rural Paraguay.

The screening will be followed by a Q&A with Dr. Flavia Ramos-Mattoussi who will discuss her work with USAID-funded “Women’s Leadership Program in Paraguay.”

This program is presented by FSU's Center for Global Engagement's Engage Your World Speaker Series, Learning Systems Institute, and Student Life Cinema.

Attending counts toward the Global Citizenship Certificate* as an educational intercultural event.

Become a Global Ambassador

The Global Ambassadors Program (GAP) gives international students and visiting scholars at FSU the opportunity to be cultural ambassadors.

Global Ambassadors engage in speaking opportunities throughout Tallahassee and present to community organizations, K-12 students, and FSU students. They have the opportunity to develop their public speaking and presentation skills in English, meet new people, and use the experience on their resume. We encourage FSU's international community of students, scholars, and faculty to apply!

CGE Student Spotlight

Maryam Takalou – international student from Tehran, Iran, and FSU Fine Art Scholarship winner – acknowledges how her experience at FSU helped her define her path to becoming a fine arts professor.

Takalou came to FSU to challenge herself in her degree while growing individually and professionally. “The Fine Art Department at FSU is really one of the best in the USA. It has supportive and outstanding professors, friendly collaboration, and access to professional and equipped labs,” she said.

While she invested a lot of her time with FSU's Fine Arts Department, Takalou also worked as a chair in the Iranian Student Association during the COVID-19 providing leadership and support during these hard times.

Her greatest achievement at FSU was winning a fine arts scholarship that gave her the opportunity to work as an instructor teaching foundational drawing courses for two years. During this time, she developed relationships with fellow students and faculty that made her time here at FSU special.

Takalou plans to graduate in spring 2022 and pursue a career as a fine arts professor. Her master's thesis focuses on migration issues, feminism, diaspora artists, and identity. The following artwork explores these topics through mixed media representations.
