FSU Hosts Interns from the University of the West Indies

Two higher education master's students from the University of the West Indies (UWI) are completing six-week internships in the Division of Student Affairs to learn about administering student services according to their interests and backgrounds.

"My experience at FSU has given me a better perspective on what student services actually do for students," said Shannette Holmes-Gilzeane, UWI intern for the Career Center. "It's mind-blowing to see how the Career Center provides comprehensive services to prepare students for their job searches."

The internship provides the opportunity for gaining practical experience and learning opportunities in a university setting as one of their final requirements before receiving their master's degree.

"My FSU experience so far has been awesome and very informative," said Cassandra Morrison, UWI intern for Campus Recreation. "I have learnt how the different units in Students Affairs facilitate students' learning experiences both in and outside the classroom. As an intern in Campus Recreation, I have gained a wealth of knowledge which will be beneficial in my future endeavors."
