FSU Students Prepare to Explore Germany

Ten FSU students in the Beyond Borders short-term intercultural exchange program prepare to travel to Dresden, Germany, in May after having recently hosted German students on FSU's campus for two weeks.

“I will always cherish the time that I had with the students from Germany,” said Carelyn Tiburcio, FSU junior studying editing, writing and media and international affairs. “They were so kind, curious, and I know for a fact that I’ve made lifelong friends. I can’t wait to go to Germany in May and create more memories!”

The program provides a unique opportunity for FSU students to host incoming international students from either Jamaica or Germany by sharing their American culture and experiences as an FSU student. A few months later, the FSU students then travel to either Jamaica or Germany to be hosted by the same student group, exploring the cultural offerings of the country and learning what it is like to be a student there.
