CGE Celebrates Graduating FSU International Students

Over 400 international students who completed degrees and programs were honored at a graduation reception held by the Center for Global Engagement on Friday, April 13.

One hundred twenty-one undergraduate students and 284 graduate students completed degree programs at FSU during 2017-2018. In addition, 15 Special Academic Program students and 56 incoming Global Exchange students from over 25 international partner universities in 12 countries also completed their programs during this year.
