Students Win GCC Scholarship to Study Internationally Through FSU's Global Exchanges

Three exemplary students — Maia Hass, Karly Kajj, and Manuela Martinez — have been awarded the Global Citizenship Certificate \(GCC\) scholarship to go on a Global Exchange and study at one of 40+ international partner universities this spring.

Maia Hass is a junior studying marketing and international affairs and Karly Kajj is a senior studying accounting; both will be attending Hanyang University in Seoul, South Korea. Manuela Martinez is a junior studying international affairs, and she will be attending the Universidad de Alicante in Alicante, Spain.

“Participating in an exchange program allows me to seek new challenges and will force me to adapt to a new environment, which will teach me how to handle change in my life,” Martinez said. “Overall, this experience is important to me because it’s the opportunity of a lifetime. If I do not go abroad now, I do not know when in life I will have the same opportunity.”

The GCC scholarship is awarded to FSU undergraduate students enrolled in the GCC and the Garnet & Gold Scholar Society who would like to use the scholarship funds to participate in one of FSU’s Global Exchange Programs.
