MAKANA

Art & Culture as Vehicles for Social Change

March 6 | 4:30–6 p.m.
The Globe Auditorium

Engage Your World This Wednesday, 3/6

Enjoy a performance and talk by Makana – an internationally acclaimed guitarist, singer, composer and activist – on Wednesday, March 6, from 4:30–6 p.m. in The Globe Auditorium.

Described as “dazzling” by The New York Times, Makana will play songs highlighting Hawaiian culture and the tradition of music as an agent of social change. In an open discussion with the audience, he will talk about serving the public interest with art projects that inspire awareness around relevant issues that affect us all.

This event is open to the public and held in collaboration with Opening Nights at Florida State University whose mission is to engage our university, local, and global communities in creative experiences. Find out more at openingnights.fsu.edu. This event also counts toward the Global Citizenship Certificate as an educational intercultural event.*
