CGE Celebrates Graduating FSU International Students

Over 400 international students completed degrees and programs at Florida State University during the 2018-2019 academic year. The Center for Global Engagement honored graduates at a reception on Friday, April 19.

Dr. Mark Riley, Dean of the Graduate School, addressed recent graduates and encouraged them to share their research both in English and their native languages by creating videos for GradWorld FSU, a brand new global interactive mapping website/video archive for all FSU degree-seeking or professional graduate students, postdoctoral scholars, alumni, and faculty.
