Alan Febraio Parma
Doctorate in Spanish

Congratulations to Our Graduating International Students

Please join us in congratulating 93 of our international students who are graduating from Florida State University this summer, of whom 27 earned bachelor's degrees, 24 earned master's degrees, and 42 earned doctoral degrees.

To our international students, we have been so pleased to have you as part of our CGE family for all of these years, and we wanted to take the opportunity to celebrate this major accomplishment with each of you. Thank you for the contributions you have made to Florida State University as an international student by sharing your unique perspectives, continually striving for academic excellence, and helping to make FSU a top 20 public university. Your presence here will be missed, and we wish you the best as you go on to bigger and brighter adventures in your future career.

We would like to thank our distinguished speakers from this graduating class for contributing to the video: Shanice Love, international student-athlete from Jamaica graduating with her bachelor's degree in accounting, and Alan Febraio Parma, international student from Brazil graduating with his doctorate degree in Spanish with a specialization in second-language acquisition.

VIRTUAL INTERNATIONAL COFFEE HOUR

with the Peruvian Student Association

Join Us Friday for Virtual International Coffee Hour with PerSA

Join us for Virtual International Coffee Hour with the Peruvian Student Association (PerSA) on Friday, July 31, at 5 p.m.

"What makes Peru so special is the diversity within one country; from the highest peaks of Huascarán Sur to the lowest point of Sechura Desert, Peru has a rich history, culture, and a unique biodiversity," said Thalia Arce, PerSA President and senior studying psychology. "Which is equally matched by our food that has been influenced by the indigenous populations and the many cuisines brought by immigrants. Speaking of food, PerSA looks forward to sharing one of Peru's favorite desserts Suspiro de Limeña!"

Arce will be joined by Alberto Villacrez, PerSA Vice President and junior studying biomedical engineering, and Virginia Hernandez, PerSA Treasurer and senior studying accounting.

PerSA is committed to promoting Peruvian culture through socials, fundraisers, and semester events within Florida State University's campus.
